Name of Traveler: Emily Manning

Employing Office/Committee: _____

Travel Expenses Paid by (List all sources): _____

Travel Date(s): _____

Description/Title of Attached Forms: _____

private sponsor travel certification form and itinerary

"The cost of the dinner on 10/3/18 for $280.12 included the entire dinner bill for the group dinner hosted by ICT for ICT staff, ICT members and the staffers as listed in the final approved itinerary. The group included 21 people, and the cost per person will be approximately $24, which is within the good faith estimate provided by ICT."

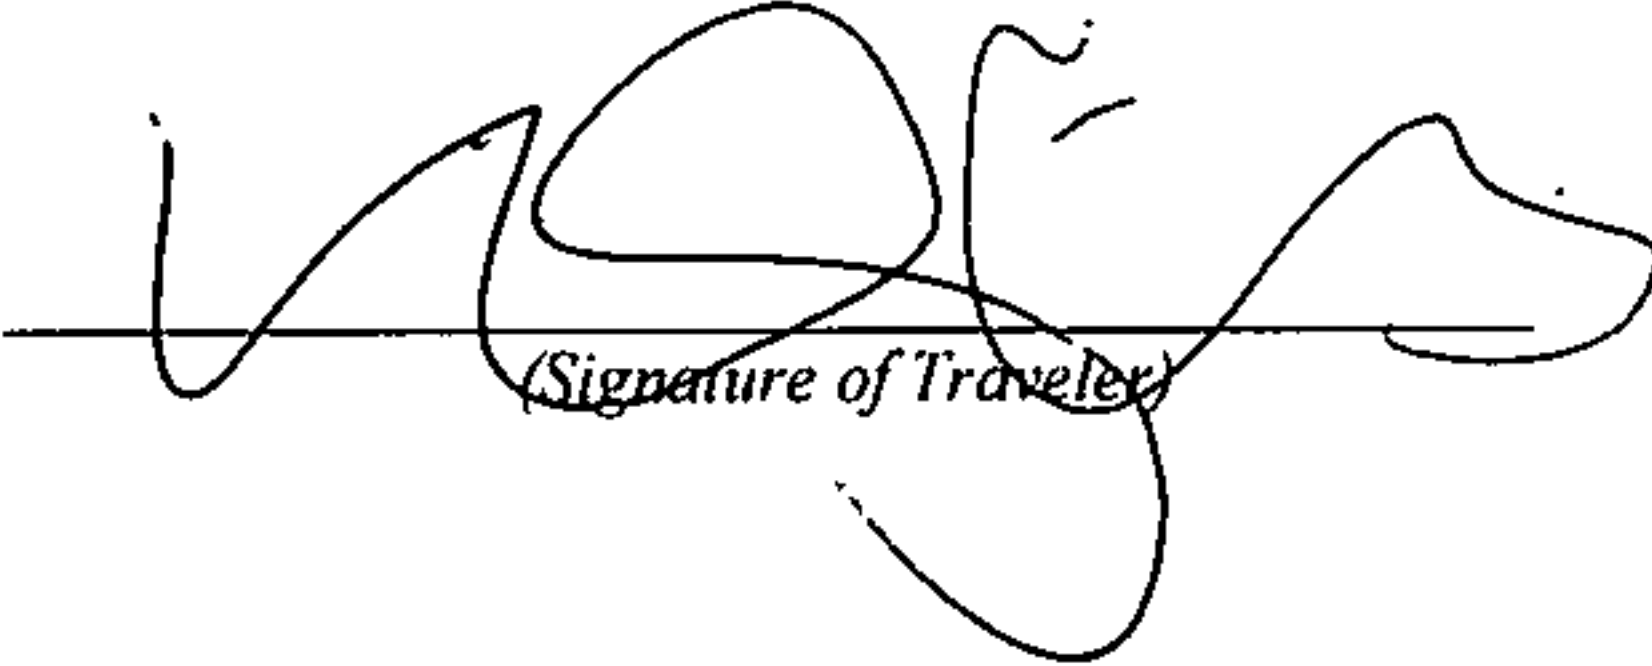

Purpose of Amendment (describe the reason for amending original submission): _____

The paperwork included the original version of the private sponsor travel certification form and the itinerary instead of the versions of those documents that the sponsor revised for approval.

Also, please confirm with ICT that the cost of your dinner on 10/3/18 was in fact $280.12 (as described on the expenses summary that you submitted with your Form RE-2). If that is the correct amount, please explain the reason for the significant increase in cost from ICT's good faith estimate of just $75 total for all three days in Dharamsala.

The little town of McLeod Ganj is the center of the Tibetan community life with many small businesses that include Tibetan shops, restaurants and various small non-profit offices. We will take a walk from the Tsuglagkhang to McLeod Ganj along streets lined with little souvenir shops run by Tibetan refugees. We will visit a few shops and businesses to understand the local economy and see some of the handicrafts produced by Tibetan refugees for example, the Tibetan Children Village Handicraft shop which has products made by students from their vocational training center; the proceeds directly benefit the TCV school (we will visit TCV school on October 5). Tencho will also point out and explain some of the grassroots social and charitable organizations located around town, that caters to various needs of the refugee community such as the Lha Charitable Trust, a grassroots volunteer organization that provides resources for the local community like language classes, clean water and soup kitchen programs.

6:30 pm Casual Dinner with ICT staff and ICT members. The International Campaign is a organization supported by a worldwide community of dedicated members. We will have dinner with ICT staff and a group of members to learn about their experiences and what issues bring them to care about Tibet.

Thursday, October 4

6:45 am	Briefing breakfast with ICT president, Matteo Mecacci. Overview of day's schedule.
7:15am	Depart Hotel
8:00 am	Audience with His Holiness the Dalai Lama His Holiness the Dalai Lama is the spiritual leader of the Tibetan people. He was forced to flee into exile in 1959. He is one of the world's foremost exponents of non-violence and was awarded the Nobel Peace prize in 1989. The Dalai Lama has developed his Middle Way initiative to resolve the Tibetan issue in consideration of the interest of both the Tibetans and the Chinese people. Facing the threat of religious and cultural extinction and believing in resolving conflicts through serious dialogue and not confrontation, the Dalai Lama has since many decades relinquished the goal of independence of Tibet in favor of genuine autonomy – a proposal that is consistent with the Chinese Constitution. This approach also takes into consideration the People's Republic of China's security and stability concerns. The group is scheduled to have an audience with His Holiness.
9:00am	Observe the public teaching by His Holiness the Dalai Lama His Holiness the Dalai Lama gives teachings on Buddhism throughout the year at various times and in different places. His Holiness also gives public talks. In India, teachings and public talks are usually free and open to the public, and thousands of disciples flock to Dharamsala every year to participate. His Holiness gives teachings at the Main Tibetan Temple (Tsulagkhang) in Dharamsala several times a year and they are officially translated into several languages including English, Chinese, Korean, Vietnamese, Hindi and Japanese on FM channels. In this occasion, His Holiness is giving three days of teachings at the request of disciples from Taiwan, and there will be several hundred disciples attending from all over the world and the local tibetan population. The group will have an opportunity to listen and observe part of the teachings.
11:00am	Meeting and lunch with Professor Samdhong Rinpoche Professor Samdhong Rinpoche is a scholar who has also served two terms as head of the Central Tibetan Administration. Previous to this, he served two terms as Speaker of the Tibetan Parliament. He is regarded as one of the leading scholars of Buddhism and also an authority on the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi. Professor Rinpoche will speak on His Holiness the Dalai Lama's vision for Tibet and the middle way approach to resolve the Tibetan issue.
1:00pm	Depart for TCV
1:30pm	Visit to Tibetan Children's Village School (TCV)

The Tibetan Children's Village was established in early 1960 to give much needed care and education to the many children who had been orphaned or separated from their families while arriving as refugees in India. TCV today has several thousand children under its care and the school model has received numerous awards and praise for its work with Tibetan children. The group will visit the school, classrooms, observe how Tibetan language, culture are taught alongside a modern education.

- 3:00pm Visit the Reception Center and Transit school
This is where all recent arrivals from Tibet are received and assisted with their immediate needs. Young Tibetans coming from Tibet are provided education at the Transit school while they adjust to life as a refugee in India. We will meet with students and staff at the reception center and transit school to hear of their work and experiences.
- 4:30 pm Visit to Norbulingka Institute
The Norbulingka Institute is dedicated to the training and preservation of traditional Tibetan arts and culture including traditional Tibetan painting, wood carving, and weaving. We will have a staff guided tour of the center to meet and visit some of the artist workshops and see how Tibetans are developing and maintaining their traditional woodwork, painting, stitching crafts skills.
